THE INFO:

DJ Kooney is an artist, born and brought up in India. His music is a reflection of his various states of mind and his journey through life and love so far. Kooney has always been exposed to music learning Hindustani classical (but has never succeeded learning this), a constant research into the art of mixing for months together, laid the foundation for him understanding the art of DJing, he is now kicking dance floors around the globe. His experiences and people in his life that inspire him in so many ways. His intensely supportive family has inspired him to follow a vision that each artist creates for themselves in a space that is honest and uninhibited. His passions include movies, and literature apart from being a brilliant wildlife photographer. His aim is to tie in these various elements in an expression that truly expresses his thoughts.

His life is spent exploring the various possibilities life has exposed him to from acting to writing and most of all making music. The world around has seen him numerous times at millions of Club gigs filled in with a few music festivals around the world. He is now supported by a team to help him relieve all the other factors of pushing a brand but just work and concentrate on what he is best!!

DJ Kooney is not a name you're likely to find every other day. That statement is not derived from a place of egocentric opinions but rather a kind of music that transcends most barriers. He belongs to this eclectic breed of musicians who derive their energies and inspirations from such varied sources that more often than not it's hard to imagine how they make music. On further inspection though one finds that the key idea that drives this interaction is in fact "obsession" to make better brighter bigger music.

DJ Kooney is notorious for his insanely energetic live performances garnished with the skill and clarity that very few musicians master that too with such great ease. Arun a.k.a DJ Kooney as he himself is a man of few words, even though is the songwriter but his sound on the other hand is that of the blessed few. A unique blend of new age sound combines and flavored with the nostalgic simplicities of Indian music. Kooney pushes the borders of electronic music, pushes the right buttons and all of this while maintaining his aura of mystery.

DJ Kooney not only likes making music but pushing his everyday ideals and boundaries in order to create more than just a new sound on stage but really a force that stands tall on eight feet.

His track “ROCK THE EASTERN GATES” made so much of noise in the clubbing ground of the world and is still being a track that is a must play for a lot of DJs around the world.
